LIZ is sitting in DOCTOR WHO's car with a look of weary impatient.

LIZ: Shall I walk back and get some help?

DOCTOR: No, no. Just a minor technical fault. Soon put it right.

He takes a test tube out of his jacket, removes the radiator cap, and pours the liquid into the car. After looking at his watch, he starts to walk round the car., passing LIZ, As he reaches the rear of the car - it starts!

DOCTOR WHO: There. That's fixed it.

DOCTOR WHO gets back into the car, is about to start the engine.

We hear the rumble of a big explosion.

LIZ: Doctor! What's that!

They both turn round to look.

Cave Mouth.

THE DOCTOR's and LIZ's P.O.V. as smoke belches out from the cave mouth.

There is now a second explosion, and even thicker smoke belches out.

Ext. Country Road. (Resume)

DOCTOR WHO and LIZ looking.

DOCTOR WHO: The Brigadier - he's blown up the alien base.

I suppose
LIZ: He had orders from the Ministry.
The Government was frightened.
They just couldn't take the risk.

DOCTOR WHO is appalled -
he can hardly believe it.

DOCTOR WHO: But that's murder!
Those were invelligent alien beings - a whole race of them.
And he's just wiped them out!

LIZ: I know.

DOCTOR WHO looks at LIZ,
his face showing anger
and disappointment.

Then without saying
anything he drives away.
